 A painting titled 'Goldschmutz' (Gold dirt) depicting a dark, muscular, and somewhat grotesque figure standing with hands on hips. The figure is rendered in dark, textured brushstrokes. The background is a warm, abstract composition of light brown and orange tones, suggesting an interior or a specific environment.		Goldschmutz 80x100 Acryl
 A painting titled 'Grasflammen' (Grass flames) showing a landscape with tall, dark grasses in the foreground. The background is dominated by bright, fiery yellow and orange colors, suggesting a fire or a sunset over a field.		Grasflammen 50x60 Acryl
 A painting titled 'New Grange' depicting a stone-lined passage or tunnel. The walls are made of rough, stacked stones, and a bright blue stream flows through the center. The lighting is dramatic, with warm, golden light from above and deep shadows on the walls.		New Grange 80x100 Acryl
